

JAMES O. EASTLAND
MISSISSIPPI

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Approved For Release 2004/10/28 : CIA-RDP81M00980R001200110066-5

United States Senate

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

July 19, 1978

Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Office of Legislative Council
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

There has been in existence for almost six years an unofficial group of Senate staff people called the Chairmen's Representatives. It is composed of Administrative Assistants, Chief Counsels and Staff Directors of the Standing Committee Chairmen of the Senate.

We meet on Fridays for breakfast at 8:30 A.M. in Room S-120 in the Capitol.

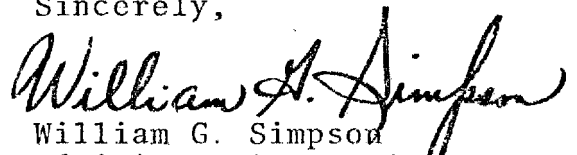

We would be most grateful if you would try to fit a visit with this group into your heavy schedule on Friday, August 4, 1978. The breakfast meetings are completely informal. We would ask you to convey to the membership any information you might wish them to have. Your remarks would be in any time frame you selected -- 20 minutes -- 10 minutes, etc. This would be followed, with your permission, by a Question and Answer period. We are always finished by 10 A.M. and can make any adjustments necessary to any time problems you might have.

Finally, Admiral Turner, we invite you to bring members of your staff whom you would like to become acquainted with these Representatives of the Standing Committee Chairmen.

We are most grateful for your consideration of this invitation, and look forward to having you with us in the near future.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

William G. Simpson
Administrative Assistant to the President Pro Tempore
